TRIO STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES

The TRIO Student Support Services Program at Skagit Valley College (SVC) assists eligible students who want to be successful college students but may have backgrounds that make this task difficult. These students have three things in common: 1) they want to excel in college, 2) they are willing to work hard to do this, and 3) they are interested in the services we provide.

Personal and academic information is requested to determine your eligibility for program services and how we may best help you. This information will be kept confidential.

Affidavit of Truth Statement & Release of Information:

I authorize the TRIO Student Support Services program staff to:

- Gather information concerning all my academic progress (standardized test scores, grade point average, earned credit, transcripts, tutoring, etc) and financial aid reports including Federal taxes, FASFA and verification of income prior to my participation in the program;
- Verify my claims of a documented disability with SVC Disability Services;
- Gather information for follow up whenever appropriate, including but not limited to, transfer and progress to other academic institutions; Report my eligibility, GPA, and financial aid status to the US Department of Education in accordance with the grant funding;
- Use my name, photo or information about me in all media sources Yes No

I certify to the best of my knowledge, statements I have made on this initial information application form are complete and true. Failure to disclose and submit complete and accurate information, may result in the denial of acceptance to Skagit Valley College TRIO Student Support Services Program. I understand that being eligible does not guarantee admissions into the TRIO Program
