A MESSAGE FROM DR. VILLA

Dear Skagit Valley College Graduating Class of 2024,

Congratulations on reaching this milestone in your academic journey! Today marks the culmination of years of hard work, dedication, and sacrifice. I'm thrilled to celebrate this momentous occasion with you.

As you embark on the next chapter of your lives, I encourage you to continue to take risks, pursue your passions, embrace challenges, and contribute to your community wherever you land. Our investment in you is not just for the betterment of Skagit Valley College, but also for the many other places you'll go.

I urge you to stay true to our guiding principles: respect, integrity, open and honest communication, collaboration, and compassion. I hope that they will be a beacon for you and others around you. So, when you are challenged in life, you will not flinch, but rather rest on your foundations, persevere, and rise again.

I have no doubt that each one of you has the potential to make a positive impact on the world, and we cannot wait to see the incredible things you will accomplish in the years ahead. But remember, we will always be here for you as you will always be a part of the Skagit Valley College community and Cardinal family.

Congratulations once again, and best of luck in all your future endeavors. Go Cardinals!

Sincerely,

Dr. Christopher Villa,
Skagit Valley College President

ACADEMIC DRESS

Have you ever wondered about the various types of robes and hoods worn by participants in a commencement ceremony? The history of academic dress reaches far back into the early days of the oldest universities. It appears that academic clothing was first introduced and worn at Cambridge and Oxford Universities in England in the 13th Century. The European custom was carried to America, but prior to 1895, the institutions in this country did not follow any particular style of costume. In that year, an academic code of dress was adopted and the standards accepted by most of the colleges and universities in the United States. Today, the black robe, hood, and cap are generally worn.
